

The 2009-10 Doctoral Research Program Lecture Series
presents:

A Spectrum of Voices and Topics

November 17

The Evolution of Research Agendas

Beth Graue and Gloria Ladson-Billings

December 1

What is a Theoretical Framework? And How do I Get One?:
Striving to Define and Build a Foundation for Research

Jee-Seon Kim, Mitchell Nathan, Michael Thomas

January 19

Forging Strong Professional Connections
as a Graduate Student at UW Madison and Beyond

Damiana Gibbons

February 2

Inquiry as the Heart of Educational Research

Clif Conrad and Rich Halverson

February 16

A Conversation Based on Theories, Qualitative Studies and NCLB's Implicit
Assumptions About the Nature of School Organization

Mary Metz

March 2

Federal Funding for Education Research: Tips and Trends

Adam Gamoran

March 16

Where the Heart Is:
Evangelical Christian Homeschooling Mothers' Educational Practice

Melissa Sherfinski

April 6

Managing Competing Priorities in Large Research Projects

Sadhana Puntambekar

April 20

A New Generation of Scholars:
A Roundtable with Spencer Dissertation Fellows

Becca Lowenhaupt and Paula McAvoy

Events are on Tuesdays from 3-4 PM in 259 Educational Sciences. Light refreshments will be provided.