

DRP PUBLIC LECTURE SERIES

JULIE UNDERWOOD, PH.D
DEAN – SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 2013

12:30 – 1:30 PM

EDUCATION BUILDING, WISCONSIN IDEA ROOM

READYING OUR PUBLIC EDUCATION FOR POLITICS AND PRIVATIZATION

Dean Julie Underwood will explore the challenge of privatization of education in the United States and what it means for the future of public education. She will discuss topics as they relate to supporting public education as the cornerstone of democracy. Dr. Underwood, a nationally recognized authority on school law, became the eighth dean of the University of Wisconsin-Madison School of Education in August 2005. During the spring 2009 semester, she served campus as the Interim Provost.

The DRP Public Lecture Series is brought to you by the School of Education Doctoral Research Program (DRP) and the Wisconsin Center for Education Research.
