

Wisconsin-Spencer Doctoral Research Program Lecture Series

Career Options for Researchers

Maria Bundy--

Education Advisor to Governor Jim Doyle

Lana Nenide--

Education Psychology
graduate, Professional Development/Resource Coordinator for the Wisconsin Alliance for Infant
Mental Health.

Cathy Caro-Bruce--

Consultant for the Wisconsin
Department of Public
Instruction, Title I and School
Support.

Enjoy this informative panel discussion featuring researchers who are working outside of academia to advise education practice and policy in non-traditional careers in education. They will outline their professional trajectories and discuss how they use their expertise in their current roles to influence education at the state and local levels.

April 15, 2008

3:00-4:00 PM

220 Teacher Education Building

Light Refreshments Served